

Dr. Rabi Narayan Kar is a Post Graduate and Master of Philosophy from University of Delhi. He holds a Ph.D. from Department of Business Economics, University of Delhi on Mergers and Acquisitions. Dr. Kar is also a Senior Fellow of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI) and a recipient of many academic scholarships including University Grants Commission Junior Research Fellowship. He has four books, several book chapters and research papers to his credit in journals and publications including Revue Organisation Responsable (ROR), Edward Elgar, Taylor & Francis, Sage and Macmillan Advance Research Series. Dr. Kar has completed one Post-Doctoral Project from Indian Council of Social Sciences Research (ICSSR) and a major innovation project from University of Delhi. Dr. Kar is also a Visiting Professor under CIMO from the Ministry of Culture and Higher Education, Finland in collaboration with Turku University of Applied Sciences.

Some of his research papers were also invited for presentation at IIM, IGIDR (RBI), World Finance Conference, Academy of International Business Conference (AIB), UNCTAD and UNESCAP. Dr. Kar's collaboration with the Competition Commission of India resulted in a national symposium on 'competition policy and competitiveness' in 2008. In 2012, he worked on a major international research project on Multi National Enterprise and Sustainable Development (MESD) leading to the organization of third edition of the international conference (MESD 2012) at Delhi (December 2012) and published a book "Emerging Dynamics of Sustainability in Multinational Enterprises" from Edward Elgar in 2016 . Dr. Kar has widely travelled and learnt from international experiences of Turkey, France, Germany, Brazil, Japan, China, Republic of South Korea, United Kingdom & Finland. His research interests are Corporate Strategy and M&A, Sustainable Development, Innovation in Enterprises and International Management.