

Gauri Malhotra selected for the 1st India-Seychelles Round Table Youth Dialogue held on Dec 17, 2018 at the Seychelles High Commission in New Delhi

It is a matter of great pride for SLC that our student- Gauri Malhotra, English Honours, 2nd Year was selected for the 1st India-Seychelles Round Table Youth Dialogue held to boost ties on December 17, 2018. After a gruelling selection process, the esteemed members of selection committee shortlisted top 30 candidates out of 550 applicants across India to attend the Dialogue at the Seychelles High Commission in New Delhi. India and Seychelles enjoy close friendly relations based on historical links and growing bilateral cooperation. The India-Seychelles Youth Round Table Dialogue enabled a rich exchange of ideas between emerging leaders to think creatively about how the Seychelles-India relationship may be strengthened through their own efforts. Seychelles High Commissioner H.E Mr. Philippe Le Gall, Major General Mr. Dilawar Singh, Chairman of the Confederation of Young Leaders- Mr. Himadrish Suwan, President of the Confederation of Young Leaders- Mr. Sameep Shastri and COO- Mr. Vansh Saluja presided over the dialogue and felicitated the delegates.
